Mumbai, July 09, 2012: Essar Oil is surprised and disappointed by the Gujarat government's unexpected step of attaching the bank accounts of Essar Oil despite the company clearly stating its intent to pay the sales tax due to the state. As a statement of its bonafide intent, Essar Oil has already agreed to pay Rs 1000 crores within 30 days to the Gujarat government towards the sales tax liability. Essar Oil has written to the state government requesting that a Committee be formed which can jointly discuss the modalities of the payment of the balance principal amount of Rs 5169 crores and consider a remission of the past interest of Rs 1932 crores. The request for remission of interest amount is based on the fact that the company sought the sales tax scheme benefit only after the Gujarat High Court verdict in its favour in April 2008 and further no interest amount was mentioned in the Supreme Court order.

Essar Oil is clearly the aggrieved party on this matter despite making investments of over Rs 25,000 crore in the refinery and a total of Rs 1 lakh crore of investments in the set up in the state of Gujarat. Every refinery in the country has received major fiscal incentives from respective state governments but in Essar Oil's case the state of Gujarat has denied these benefits despite being aware of the on ground situation. However in other cases where investments amounts have been much smaller, the state continues to grant similar benefits.

Essar Oil has repeatedly made its intent to pay clear once the Supreme Court verdict was announced.

Essar Oil has been writing continuously to the state government to work out an amicable payment schedule after the company lost the case in Supreme Court on the sales tax matter. It had also submitted a detailed payment schedule to the Additional Chief Secretary (Finance) on the 5th of April but the submitted proposal was rejected without any valid reason contrary to accepted norms. The company also submitted the payment schedule to the Gujarat High Court on 25th of June when it issued orders asking the state government to recover the monies. The reason Essar Oil has requested a instalment based payment scheme is because the company embarked on a major capital expansion scheme since the sales tax scheme mandated 50% of the collected amount to be re-invested. Hence it is not possible to make the payment in one single instalment as demanded by the state. Despite attempts to clarify and share the schedule repeatedly, the state government officials today visited our bankers and refinery in connection with the recovery of sales tax dues.

Essar Oil is a law abiding corporate and the Essar Group of companies has invested over Rs 1 lakh crore in the state of Gujarat. It is following all the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Court and has made its intent clear to every relevant departments of the state government.
